

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Movements of Many People, Newberrians and Those Who Visit Newberry.

County Agent T. M. Mills is still gathering prizes on corn. At the state fair, as recorded in Wednesday's State, he won first for ten ears of any other one eared corn, together with stalk having ears attached; and Mr. Arthur H. Counts, also of Prosperity, drew first prize for one-half bushel of soft wheat, any variety.

Dr. J. W. Carson began a meeting at Villa Heights, N. C., on the 24th instant, to continue one week. Four prayer meetings one night were held preparatory to the meeting.—Associate Reformed Presbyterian, 26th.

Mr. Arthur McGee of near Honea Path, who mysteriously disappeared while on his way home circus day, has not been located. Searchers are still looking for the missing man. A report that he had been seen in Newberry proved false.—Anderson Mail, 25th—21 years ago.

Dr. Carson was present in the interest of the Forward Movement and made a strong plea in favor of sustained in behalf of the movement until it is completed.—From the Associate Reformed Presbyterian's report of the recent meeting of the Catawba presbytery at Unity, Lancaster county.

Mr. Hiram Speers received a letter on Tuesday from his brother, Mr. Coppock Speers of the New York Times, stating that he had gone to Birmingham with President Harding. It is "something else" to be traveling on special missions with the presidential party.

Miss Margherita Matthews paid a week-end visit to her parents in Newberry.—Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Jeffcoat have with them for a visit Miss Lillian Price of Leesville.—Greenwood Index-Journal, 24th.

Messrs. Frank G. Davis, J. T. McCrackin, Elmore Suber, I. M. Smith, Jacob W. Warner and John E. Herbert, your committee on the proposed creamery, we hope to hear good news from you, and soon.

Messrs. Jacob P. Long, W. H. Folk and M. M. Satterwhite have been drawn as first week jurors for the Anderson term of the federal court convening the 22nd instant; Mr. W. T. Buford for second week and Mr. B. J. Proctor of Dyson as grand juror.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellesor Adams have moved from the home of Mr. McHardy Mower and family and are now occupying rooms at Mrs. O. L. Schumpert's home vacated by Mr. Luther Oxner and family who have moved to their new home in Summer street.

In Mrs. J. A. Caldwell's advertisement of her lovely flowers last week her phone number was inadvertently given as 202. It should have been 2602. Everybody knows that Mrs. Caldwell has magnificent specimens. If in search of these flowers, which "are in their glory now," remember the corrected number and phone Mrs. Caldwell. Or Hal will attend to it for you at "The New Book Store."

Rev. E. V. Babb and Messrs. G. W. Summer, I. H. Hunt and B. L. Dorrity motored to Greenville Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad McCrackin now have two boys and two girls in their home, the new member of the household being "the other girl" this week. As Thad has thereby added to the population of Newberry we hope he will push the other members of the creamery committee and make haste to establish that institution here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Clamp have started out in life this week with a little boy, and are now experiencing the pleasure and happiness of owning a little son of their own. "What is home without a baby?" What is prettier in life than a young couple with the first baby?

Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Mills and little C. B., Jr., of Cross Hill visited Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mills and other relatives this week.

Mrs. Robert Beaty of Whitmire drew first for collar, and Miss Mary Eleazer of Chapin second for patchwork quilt in worsted.

VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

Speaking of "you all," the Greenwood Index-Journal of the 24th instant, says of a recent letter from Mr. Ambrose E. Gonzales to the New York World, that "it is our deliberate opinion that nothing better has ever been contributed to the apparently eternal question of our Southern use of the expression 'you all.'" We were reading Sunday among the epistles of the Apostle Paul and noticed where he used "you all" in Philippians. St. Paul is high authority for a great many people all over the world.

Two men were shot and killed last week at Curtis Bay, Md., in a difficulty resulting from one man's attempting the liberty of kissing a young lady, a niece of one of the men killed. It's about time more shooting should result from the attentions of certain men to decent girls.

It has been and still is hard to get places in Newberry, but there will be "Room and Board" at the opera house tonight, Thursday, with Constance Binney in the picture.

The State of the 25th, in its items of 29 years ago, says: R. H. Welch of Newberry is in the city.

A new story by Francis Lynde is entitled: "The Girl, a Horse and a Dog." Now all those people who have heard us mention the three things we liked best, will think this is a coincidence.

The Woman's Missionary society of Central Methodist church will observe a week of prayer, beginning Monday, 31st instant, and continuing through Friday, November 4. Friday's program will be devoted to the juniors, and Thursday's to the young people. All women of the church are invited at 4 o'clock each afternoon.

Look at "The Inner Chamber," Friday, at the opera house, and see Alice Joyce.

We are not defending William Jennings Bryan, but because of many unjust and unnecessary flings at a good man, we must quote what the Wilcox Progressive Era, in reporting an address before the Pan Presbyterian Alliance in Pittsburgh, Pa., last week, said: "Mr. Bryan has not lost his following. . . . The reporter says he delivered the most masterly address he ever heard. The crowd could not get in the great auditorium." We like fair play, that's all.

There will be a Halloween entertainment and carnival at the Little Mountain school building Monday evening, Oct. 31st, beginning at 7:30 and lasting as long as you are having a good time, and until your money is all spent. Everybody is cordially invited.

Some colored fellows were tried and convicted in the court of Magistrate Douglas Tuesday. Wistar Davis and Ernest Toland were fined $35 each for gambling and carrying concealed weapons. paid. Frank Davis, Jack Barre, Rich Coleman, Peter Kinnard and J. Cannon each paid $10 for gambling.

There will be a Halloween entertainment at Jalapa school Monday night at 8 o'clock.

Service at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon at St. Luke's Episcopal church. Dr. P. E. Way is not exactly getting ready for the white way, but a new floor in his neat drugstore, with other improvements, will be in keeping with the new white way in west Main street.

Too many people go to state fairs to single out a few persons for the "purely personal" column. Bear in mind the "old hoss" sale at the C. N. & L. freight depot Saturday morning, beginning at 10 o'clock.
